QUALIFYING LANES

Once the original qualifying line has been completed, or "breaks," two qualifying lines will be formed:

FAST LANE

The priority line is for cars that have not qualified, have withdrawn a previous qualifying time or been bumped out of the 33-car field by a car that qualified faster. The withdrawal of the previous qualifying time takes effect when the car enters the line.

LANE 2

For cars that have posted a qualifying time, do not wish to withdraw it, but wish to qualify again. Cars in this lane may make an attempt once there is a break in the Fast Lane. If a car making an attempt from this lane does not improve its qualifying time, the original qualifying time remains as its official attempt.
