Firestone | FAST FACT

Portland is home to Mill Ends Park, the world's smallest city park according to the Guinness Book of World Records. At just 24 inches in diameter, the entire park could sit on top of the rear Firestone Firehawk race tire (28 inches in diameter) when laid on its side. Mill Ends Park is located seven miles south of Portland International Raceway in the median of Naito Parkway. It was created in 1946 when a local man planted flowers in an empty hole that never received its intended light pole.
